Law Implemented:	s. 1009.21, Fla. Stat.; Rule 6A-10.044, F.A.C.	Page 1 of 1

For the purpose of assessing tuition and fees, students are classified as residents or non-residents for tuition purposes based upon the requirements established by s. 1009.21, Fla. Stat., and Rule 6A-10.044, F.A.C.. Pensacola State College will classify students in accordance with the law and guidelines provided by the State Residency Committee. Residency is determined after a student has been admitted to the College. The President will establish procedures for the initial classification, reclassification, and appeal of residency determinations, including a residency appeal committee as required by s. 1009.21(12), Fla. Stat. The rules, including the residency appeal process, are outlined in the College Catalog and will be prominently displayed on the College website.
