Security Statement:

Pensacola State College is committed to encouraging all members of the College community to be proactive in personal safety measures. In case of emergency, students should ensure that they are aware of the building exit closest to each of their classrooms, as well as all alternative building exits in case circumstances require using a different route.

Emergency Statement:

In the case of severe weather or other emergency, the College administration maintains communication with appropriate state and local agencies and makes a determination regarding the cancellation of classes. Notices of cancellation will be made through the College's PSC Alert system and on the College's website.

Conduct Policies:

Do not use cell phones in the classroom.

Do not have ear buds in your ears during class.

Violation of these policy will result in your being asked to leave the class.

Persistent talking while the instructor or another student is speaking, could result in your being asked to leave the class. If you are asked to leave class for violating class policies, you will be counted absent from class.

Because we do not require a textbook, I have provided notes and the pictures that I use for each unit in the module section. You are required to print out the pictures that are used for each unit that are the module section. As I go over the PowerPoint, you will fill in the information and follow along with the notes. I will check them off the day they are assigned.

If you have problems printing them out at home, you can use the computer lab to print out the pictures and the notes. You do have free printing in the computer lab. Do it before class.

Makeup or late work:

Make-up tests: You can make up a test before or after the class. You will need to make arrangements with me.

Extra Credit: There will be a module in elearning that will list the extra credit. You can only do two extra credit assignments.
