Evaluations of student progress towards achieving the stated learning outcomes and performance objectives is the responsibility of the instructor, within the policies of the College and the department. Detailed explanations are included in the course supplementals developed by the instructor for each section being taught.

[ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICIES

Logging onto class is considered “attending class.” Each unit requires regular and punctual attendance. Prior to the 70% deadline, any student who does not log on to the class for two consecutive weeks runs the risk of getting too far behind to complete the class. It is the student’s responsibility to withdraw from the course if said student decides to cease attending.

Participation entails completing assignments, discussion forums, and essays. If a student fails to complete two weeks’ worth of assignments, regardless of logged hours in the course, said student runs the risk of getting too far behind to complete the class.

NO-SHOW PROCEDURE FOR FIRST WEEK OF CLASSES

Attendance during the first week of classes is required. Logging on to class is considered “attending class.” Students who do not log in to class during the first week of class may be withdrawn from the class. Students who are withdrawn for not attending the first week of class may discuss reinstatement with the department chair.

Student Expectations: Students enrolled in this course can expect the following:

1. clearly identified course objectives;
2. productive class meetings;
3. a positive learning environment;
4. opportunities for appropriate student participation;
5. effective instruction;
6. positive and appropriate interactions;
7. assistance with meeting course objectives during and beyond class hours;
8. evaluation of student performance and appropriate and timely feedback; and
9. clear and well-organized instruction.

General Education Student Learning Outcomes:

Critical Thinking: The student analyzes, evaluates, and, if necessary, challenges the validity of ideas, principles, or data in order to develop informed opinions, probable predictions, or defensible conclusions.

Communication: The student effectively communicates knowledge and ideas.

Cultural Literacy: The student demonstrates an understanding of human culture and its diversity.

Course Learning Outcomes:

1. Explain the philosophical theories covered in the course.
2. Evaluate differing philosophical theories.
3. Compare and contrast differing philosophical theories.
4. Distinguish between the structures of inductive and deductive arguments.
5. Evaluate new information, methods, cultural systems, values, and beliefs in constructive ways.

Academic Dishonesty Statement:

Pensacola State College is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic conduct. All forms of academic dishonesty, to include plagiarism and cheating, are prohibited. Penalties for academic dishonesty include but are not limited to one or more of the following: the awarding of no credit on the assignment, a reduction in the course grade, or the assignment of a final course grade of F and removal from the course.
