Required Textbooks and Instructional Materials: Free “Open Educational Resources” required. Please see your instructor.

Supplemental Textbooks and Instructional Materials: None.

Special Requirements:

Writing Emphasis Requirement: A minimum of three fully developed, multi-paragraph, evaluated writing assignments, not including a final examination, are required.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: Instructors provide detailed feedback regarding the content, organization, and use of standard written English for each evaluated writing assignment.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: Instructors return each evaluated writing assignment to a student before submission of the next evaluated writing assignment.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: Only individual student work may count toward the minimum three evaluated writing assignments.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: Grading rubrics will be used for each evaluated writing assignment. These rubrics will be shared with each student.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: The grades earned on the writing assignments must reflect student performance in college-level writing and significantly impact the final course grade.

Methods of Evaluation:

At minimum, the instructor will cover content which aligns with statewide and institutional learning outcomes for the course. The instructor will measure student performance using the following:

Grading Scale:
90% - 100%	A
87% - 89%	B+
80% - 86%	B
77% - 79%	C+
70% - 76%	C
67% - 69%	D+
60% - 66%	D
0% - 59%	F

Grading Calculation
Exams	40%
Quizzes	15%
Discussion Board	20%
Chapter Reviews	25%
Totals	100%

Evaluations of student progress towards achieving the stated learning outcomes and performance objectives is the responsibility of the instructor, within the policies of the College and the department. Detailed explanations are included in the course supplementals developed by the instructor for each section being taught.

Exams

Only two exams will be administered throughout the semester, a midterm and a final exam. Both will be timed exams comprised of multiple-choice, multiple answer, matching, and/or true/false items. All assessments, including the exams, will be administered through the Canvas course site. Each exam will be available for completion for a set period of time. Exams must be submitted by deadline (as specified in the class schedule below); forgetfulness is NOT an acceptable excuse for failing to complete an exam. Regardless, if you did not take an exam, for whatever reason, please contact me as soon as possible. No make-up exams will be given without instructor permission. Your average exam score will account for 40% of your overall grade for the course.

Chapter Quizzes

For each chapter, you will be assigned at least one quiz on the Canvas course site. All quizzes will be open book unless specified otherwise. The designated “chapter quiz” will be timed, so while you may use your book, it is strongly advised that you read the chapter BEFORE taking this quiz. Once you begin a chapter quiz, you MUST complete it. Other quizzes will require you to read supplemental material, such as news articles or websites; the links for each will be provided for you in the corresponding assignment’s instructions. Chapter quizzes will be accessible for AT LEAST one week.

Each quiz must be submitted by 11:55 pm of the due date (located in the class schedule below). You may submit a quiz within 48 hours AFTER the due date, but you will be docked 50% of the total score. Your average score for the chapter quizzes will account for 15% of your overall grade.

Discussion Board Posts

Throughout the course, you will be provided with discussion prompts that further address a topic discussed within each chapter. For each discussion board, you will be required to post a response to the prompt as well as comment on THREE of your fellow classmate's responses. Your posts will be graded for both completion and the quality of the content. Discussion boards will be accessible for AT LEAST one week.

Both posts must be made by 11:55 pm of the due date (located in the class schedule); any posts made after this time will be considered late. The main response post is due the corresponding Thursday & the classmate responses on Sunday. Main response posts submitted after 11:55 pm are LATE, however, you may submit them before the Sunday deadline for UP TO 50% credit for the assignment (additional points may be lost based on the grading rubric). Your average score for discussion posts will constitute 20% of your final grade.

Chapter Reviews

As you absorb the material for each chapter, you should simultaneously answer the corresponding chapter review. Chapter reviews are open book and may be completed at your leisure. You will not be limited to a designated time period nor by the number of times you may access the assignment. Chapter reviews will be accessible for AT LEAST one week.

Reviews must be submitted by 11:55 pm of the due date (located in the class schedule); any posts made after this time will be considered late. You may submit a review within 48 hours AFTER the due date, but you will be docked 50% of the total score. Your average score for discussion posts will constitute 25% of your final grade.

In cases where companion software is used for a particular class, email may be exchanged between instructor and student using the companion software.

Flexibility:

It is the intention of the instructor to accomplish the objectives specified in the course syllabus. However, circumstances may arise which prohibit the fulfilling of this endeavor. Therefore, this syllabus is subject to change. When possible, students will be notified of any change in advance of its occurrence.

ADA Statement:

Students with a disability that falls under the Americans with Disability Act or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, it is the responsibility of the student to notify Student Resource Center for ADA Services to discuss any special needs or equipment necessary to accomplish the requirements for this course. Upon completion of registration with the Student Resource Center for ADA Services office, specific arrangements can be discussed with the instructor.

Equity Statement:

Pensacola State College does not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, ethnicity, religion, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity or genetic information in its programs, activities, and employment. For inquiries regarding the College's nondiscrimination policies, contact the Executive Director of Institutional Equity and Student Conduct, 1000 College Blvd., Building 5, Pensacola, Florida 32504, (850) 484-1759.

Security Statement:

Pensacola State College is committed to encouraging all members of the College community to be proactive in personal safety measures. In case of emergency, students should ensure that they are aware of the building exit closest to each of their classrooms, as well as all alternative building exits in case circumstances require using a different route.

Emergency Statement:

In the case of severe weather or other emergency, the College administration maintains communication with appropriate state and local agencies and makes a determination regarding the cancellation of classes. Notices of cancellation will be made through the College's PSC Alert system and on the College's website.
