Evaluations of student progress towards achieving the stated learning outcomes and performance objectives is the responsibility of the instructor, within the policies of the College and the department. Detailed explanations are included in the course supplementals developed by the instructor for each section being taught.

[Method of Evaluation: 3 Essay Exams (23.33% each), and three two-page course topic papers (graded for content, grammar, and style, and counting 10% each)

EXAMS:

- A. There will be three exams, including the final, each counting 23.33 %.
- B. All three exams will be essay-style exams in which 10 terms must be thoroughly identified in paragraph-style answers. In a well-written manner the student, using critical thinking skills, will identify the test terms by utilizing the following material -- who, what, where, when, and why.
- C. Reviews before each exam may be scheduled if the need arises.
- D. The final exam will not be cumulative.
- E. If you miss an exam, you must have an administration official's excuse in order to take a make-up.

Student Expectations: Students enrolled in this course can expect the following:

- 1. clearly identified course objectives;
- 2. productive class meetings;
- 3. a positive learning environment;

4. opportunities for appropriate student participation;
5. effective instruction;
6. positive and appropriate interactions;
7. assistance with meeting course objectives during and beyond class hours;
8. evaluation of student performance and appropriate and timely feedback; and
